

Scott Jenkins

Scott Jenkins serves as Chair of the Front Royal-Warren County Economic Development Authority. He joined the board in 2021. As co-owner of Mountain Home Bed & Breakfast, located on Remount Road, Scott established a thriving business that draws visitors from around the globe. Scott's business interests complement Warren County's small business, tourism, restaurant, and recreation sectors - giving him valuable insight into promoting our community's varied assets. In operation since 2013, Mountain Home has welcomed more than 10,000 visitors to Front Royal-Warren County.

With over 32 years of technology management and system integration experience, Scott's record of achievement includes Sprint, Ericsson Services, Inc., IBM, AT&T, MCI, and Andersen Consulting. He has a Master's Degree in Management from the Kellogg School of Management, Northwestern University, and a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from the University of Richmond.

As a parent, Scott supported youth development through various leadership roles within the Boy Scouts of America, as a church youth group leader, and as a middle school Sunday School teacher. An avid hiker and outdoor enthusiast, Scott completed "thru-hikes" of the Appalachian Trail in 2012 and the Tuscarora Trail in 2020. He is an active member of the Front Royal-Warren County Appalachian Trail Community's steering committee. Along with his wife, Lisa, he serves as a "shelter maintainer" in nearby George Washington National Forest. Scott and Lisa have adopted a two-mile stretch of Remount Road for roadside cleanups.
